

SOCIETY.

Anniversary

Miss Fairy McCormick celebrated her birthday Tuesday evening. About twenty of her friends were present. Refreshments were served.

At Home

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rose entertained Mr. and Mrs. John White and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stedem at their home on Canal street, Sunday evening.

Seniors Feted

Prof. and Mrs. Silverthorne will receive the High School Faculty and the Seniors at their home on Glenview Heights, Wednesday evening.

Turtle Soup

Mr. and Mrs. John White gave a turtle soup party on Thursday evening to the following: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stedem, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fisher, Ferd Hack, Mrs. Bradley and Miss Maud Kean, of Lancaster.

Tea Party

Mrs. H. R. Harrington was hostess at a daintily appointed tea Monday evening, honoring Miss Charlotte Work. Covers were laid for the Misses White, Mrs. A. K. Smith, Miss Lucy Walker, of Columbus, Miss Sadie McCray and the guest of honor, Miss Work.

Euterpians

Miss Mame Campbell was hostess for the Euterpian Club Friday evening and a feast of music was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Harry Kirker, Mrs. Dr. Rannels, Mrs. W. H. Hickman of Newark and the Misses Ella Rochester, Emma Becker, Magie White and May Kirker were guests.

"Spooners"

The "Spoon Club" of Lancaster visited our city Thursday and were entertained in the morning by Mrs. Pfeiffer, guests of the Ambrose Hotel for dinner and in the afternoon Mrs. Chas. Yontz entertained with cards and a Dutch lunch. There is nothing slow about Logan when it comes to entertaining.

Junias

The members of the Junia club had a picnic supper at the home of the Misses Rochester, last Thursday afternoon and evening, complimenting Miss Work, a June bride. Miss Work was given a "pound shower," also presented with a beautiful brass lamp. Miss Emma Becker and Miss Mazie White served the supper.

Euchre

Mrs. W. H. Cowell entertained with a Euchre party last Saturday evening honoring Miss Charlotte Work. Fourteen tables of players enjoyed this popular game, and prizes were taken by Mrs. John Gardner, Mrs. Bert Stedman and Mrs. Harry Ambrose. Mrs. Cowell served elegant refreshments. The out of town guests were Mrs. John Gardner and Mrs. Bradley of Lancaster.

Pecksniffs

Monday night the Peckniffs bloomed forth in all their glory and made their June "debut" at the home of Mrs. Dr. Aplin, who had anticipated their arrival and invited a few friends to participate in the game enjoyed by this "pleasant little family gathering." Mr. "Peck" gave first prize to Miss Stinchfield, and Miss "Sniff" the visitors prize to Mrs. A. M. Sparks. The hostess served delightful refreshments.

Missionary Society

Mrs. Ida Mathias was hostess for the Ladies Foreign Missionary Society Wednesday afternoon at her home on Glenview Heights. The ladies meet once a month and are studying Africa.

Ladies and Gents Whist

Dr. and Mrs. A. K. Smith received the members of this jolly club at their beautiful new home on Glenview Heights last Wednesday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blasius, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ambrose, Mr. and Mrs. Dillon Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. John Wellman, Mr. and Mrs. John Billson, Mrs. Bradley, Miss Bird White, Miss Work, Messrs. Fred Ambrose and Mr. Will Strentz. Mr. John Wellman captured the gentleman's prize and Mrs. Bradley of Lancaster, the ladies prize. Delightful refreshments were served by Mrs. Smith.

Birthday Anniversary

Katharine Yontz, the charming little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Yontz, celebrated her Ninth anniversary Thursday and was greeted by some thirty of her friends who remembered the happy event by presenting Katharine with some very handsome presents. An unique feature of the afternoon was the "Teddy Bear" contest which was a source of great merriment for the guests. Lucille Keynes took first prize and Minnie Ambrose second. Mrs. Yontz served delicious refreshments.

Katharine Kellar of Lancaster, was an out of town guest.

Social Circle

Mrs. J. F. Walker was hostess for the Social Circle Wednesday afternoon and quite an enjoyable time was spent by the ladies and their guests. The affair was "Dutch" all the way through, even to a Dutch Contest, where Mrs. Yontz took prize, a Dutch figure in burnt wood frame. Mrs. Nader received visitors prize, a companion picture framed. Mrs. Kate Becker received Club prize in the next contest, a beautiful burnt wood jardiniere stand, and Mrs. Johnson the visitors prize, a burnt wood picture. In the third contest, Mrs. Jas Rochester took club prize, also a picture framed in burnt wood. Mrs. Frasch secured visitors prize, a companion picture to the club prize. After the contests, all were invited to the dining room where an elegant two course Dutch supper was enjoyed. The lunch cloths were red bandanna handkerchiefs, napkins with Dutch figures printed them, and beautiful place cards of burnt wood.

Mrs. Walker certainly knows how to entertain the Dutch. Mrs. Nader, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Kirker, Mrs. Avey, of California, Mrs. Kirker, Mrs. Lew Frasch and Miss Emma Klinker were visitors.

Strentz-Work Nuptials

On Wednesday, June 5th, at four o'clock, occurred the wedding of Mr. Will Strentz to Miss Charlotte Work. Fourteen tables of players enjoyed this popular game, and prizes were taken by Mrs. John Gardner, Mrs. Bert Stedman and Mrs. Harry Ambrose. Mrs. Cowell served elegant refreshments. The out of town guests were Mrs. John Gardner and Mrs. Bradley of Lancaster.

At the hour appointed, the bride and groom descended the stairs, attended only by little Kenley Smith, as ring bearer, and little Miss Julia Meridith Work, carrying a basket of flowers. Mrs. H. J. Woodworth presided at the piano and played the wedding march, and then "Hearts and Flowers" during the ceremony.

Rev. C. R. Wilson most impressively recited the ring service. The bride was attired in white swiss. After the ceremony a buffet lunch was served, Mrs. George Work and Mrs. Robt. Work, presiding at the buffet. Miss Olive Rochester and Mrs. Herbert Harrington and Miss White served from the table. Besides the immediate families, there were present: Misses Bird and Anna White, Olivia Rochester, Mrs. H. R. Harrington, Miss Jessie McManigal, Mr. Hubert Lappen, Miss Lucy Walker, of Columbus. The out-of-town guests were Robt. Work and wife, of Parkersburg, Miss Letitia Work, of Lancaster, and Master John Threewit, of Denver.

Mr. Strentz is a prominent merchant of Logan being one of the clothing firm of Strentz & Lappen. His bride is one of Logan's most popular young ladies. They have taken a trip to New York, Washington City and Norfolk. At the train Wednesday their host of friends gave them a rousing "send off."

Upon their return to Logan they will occupy the handsome new house of W. L. Gage, on "The Heights." It is now furnished and ready to make Mr. and Mrs. Strentz a happy home. We wish them all the joy that kind nature is wont to bestow upon her most favored.

Brown Bros.

That's the name that inspires confidence in the clothes - buyers. The store that owes its continuous success for years, not to the policy of seeing how much it could get for poor clothes, but rather how much good clothes value it could give its patrons at the lowest prices at which they could be handled. The store where QUALITY is the watchword. The store where once a customer, always a customer, because they know by actual experience and comparison that there is no other clothing as good as ours at the price. We stake our reputation on the supremacy of these spring suits over all other being sold in this section of the state at $10.00, $12.00, $14.00,

$15.00, $16.00, $18.00,
$20.00 and $22.00.

The Boy's Clothes

Should have your most careful attention. In spite of all that be said about boy's clothing it takes QUALITY OF FABRIC, STYLE, WORKMANSHIP and FIT to make a lasting bargain. Price alone doesn't mean anything, it's what you get at the price that counts. Come in, let us show you the values we are showing at $2.00 to $5.00 before you buy, that's the best way.

Now is STRAW HAT TIME, latest styles in medium and finest grades at $1. to $3.
